

Please rule that state do-not-call lists are not pre-empted by the federal do-not-call list. States should be free to exercise their police power and limit the intrusion into families' homes caused by telemarketing. The federal do-not-call list should be a "floor," not a ceiling.